Rockwater Energy Solutions Announces Purchase of Flowback, Well Testing and Water Transfer Assets from Competitor Exiting Market

HOUSTON – July 7, 2016. Rockwater Energy Solutions, Inc. is pleased to announce the purchase of US land-based Flowback, Well Testing and Water Transfer assets of a competitor exiting the market. These assets include high-quality, well-maintained equipment supporting the Permian and Gulf Coast regions. Rockwater intends to utilize these assets to expand its existing flowback, well testing, and water transfer services supporting the Mid Continent, Permian and Eagle Ford markets. In addition to the asset purchase, Rockwater will also assume possession of the competitor’s repair and maintenance facility in Odessa, Texas.

“We have been fortunate to grow market share recently, particularly in our South Texas, Mid-Continent and Permian regions,” stated Holli Ladhani, Rockwater President and CEO. “We anticipate activity levels will begin to increase in the coming months, and the addition of these assets will be essential in expanding our services to both existing and new customers within these basins.”
